

SRHMRA Submission 192 — Rowena Sannang

I believe that it is important for Australia to maintain a strong research community. I am a PhD candidate doing medical research, and a cancer related gene that I have been studying was discovered in Australia.