

SRHMRA Submission 53 — Neuroscience Research Australia

Neuroscience Research Australia endorses the submission from the Association of Australian Medical Research Institutes as providing a challenging and 'game changing' proposal for enhancing the conduct and impact of health and medical research in Australia.

An additional submission highlighting specific examples that illustrate these issues and addresses the committees terms of reference is being finalised and will be submitted directly, albeit after 30 March.

Prof Peter R Schofield

Executive Director & CEO